

REFUND POLICY FOR FULL TIME COURSES

UK/ EU Students

Full fees are due 28 days in advance of course commencement. No refund of any fees will be made under any circumstances. The Talland School of Equitation will, however, always hold any remaining fees in credit for learners to take in courses, livery or lessons within a year.

Talland School of Equitation LLP recommends that all learners take out adequate insurance to cover loss of fees due to them cancelling their course for whatever reason.

Non EU Students. applying for full time courses.

All fees for student courses are due in advance of your visa application, payable to Talland School of Equitation, in order for us to process your letter of acceptance and sponsor licence application. These will be held until your application has been accepted or refused. If your application is refused you will be refunded in full less an administration charge of 2.5 % of the total fees.
